Consent Form for Mission trips

Contact in case of an emergency:

Emergency Contact : _____ Phone: (____) ____ - _____

Release For Medical Treatment

I consent to the leaders and authority of Youth For Truth to use their best judgment in regards to an emergency problem. I understand that every effort will be made to contact me, the legal guardian of my child, or a family member. I have given the most current medical information, to the best of my knowledge. I do not hold Youth For Truth Int. liable in case of an emergency medical problem or injury.

Consent For Discipline

I understand that I will be responsible to cover all expenses in sending my child or myself home early if I do not respect God or the YFT leaders and behave in a mature and responsible manor. I will be expected to exhibit a high level of integrity and morality that will maintain a quality atmosphere at all times for the team and the local people in the country we are going to. Both dress and behavior will exemplify the highest standards of Christian example.

Activity & Diet Release Form

I understand that there are many risks in training and going on the mission field. Diet and physical activities are a major part of this mission trip. I consent to allow my child or me to participate in all physical involvement and agree to him/her or I eating the proper nutritional diet provided. If you have any diet or physical restrictions please list them here.

Photo Release

I give my permission for Youth For Truth Int. to use any audio or visual records of this program for its promotional and or commercial purposes without compensation or written permission from me.

Permission to leave the USA

I give my permission for the named applicant to participate completely in the Youth For Truth Int. program, including leaving the USA. I have read and agree to all the previous statements, releases and liabilities. I agree by my signature required on this application and having my signature notarized with an attached notary if my child is under 18.

If you are 18 or older just sign and date on the bottom line. If you are under 18 you must have your parent sign and date the first line in front of a public notary. Then you must sign the second line.

Youth for Truth and Youth for Christ expectations
You must read this and sign it at camp check in

We want to make sure you understand what is expected from you while on a mission trip. Please read each statement and sign your name on the line.

While on this mission trip you are expected to treat everyone equally with respect and kindness. This means no clicks, gossiping, fighting, making fun of, practical joking or excluding others. _____

While on this mission trip you are expected to refrain from bad and vulgar language. You cannot bring any weapons, drugs, alcoholic beverages, tobacco, pornography or anything that would separate you from God. _____

While on this mission trip you can only use electronic devices while traveling to the country. This trip is set aside to get away from our normal comforts and life styles. Games and music will separate you from getting to know the other youth. You can bring only Christian music to listen to while traveling and falling asleep. _____

While on this mission trip you are expected to dress in a way that will not distract from God. That means cover your boobs and butts! Bring long shorts or capris (no short shorts). For swimming girls must wear one piece, tankinis or a colored tank top while in the pool area. No exclusive relationships. Whether two girl friends form a click or a guy and girl exclude themselves, we expect everyone to be treated the same. _____

While on this mission trip you are expected to respect all authority. If a staff member asks you to do something, you are expected to listen to them (unless what they have asked you to do is immoral). This includes Youth for Christ, Youth for Truth staff and leaders in the country. If you think you have been asked to do something unfairly, then do what your asked to and after come to see your leader and they will work out the problem.

While on this mission trip you are expected to stay on the schedule that we have created. That means you must wake up when we say and go to sleep when we say. Also you must be on time for all activities and meetings. _____
